

Fall 2010 Symposium: October 21st to 29th

American Poverty in Context

★ Thursday, October 21st

Joel Berg

Roundtable Discussion: Taking Action Against Hunger 12:30 pm @ Gifford Annex Lounge

Yes, We Can End Hunger and Poverty in the U.S. 7:00pm @ Dana Auditorium

★ Friday, October 22nd

Community Supper 4:00-8:00 pm @ The Congregational Church

Volunteer opportunity! Come lend a hand at the Congregational Church's weekly community supper. Students are needed to prepare and serve the dinner. Contact Yuan Lim (ylim@middlebury.edu) if you are interested!

★ Monday, October 25th

Harlan Beckley 4:30 pm @ McCullough Social Space

Keynote Lecture: Poverty 101

Harlan Beckley with Tom and Nancy Shepherd

Info Session on the Shepherd Program for the Interdisciplinary Study of Poverty and Human Capability 7:00 pm @ Library 201

★ Tuesday, October 26th

Robert Prasch 12:30 pm @ Chateau 108

Poverty, Gender Politics, and Labor Legislation

★ Wednesday, October 27th

Samantha Marder and Hannah Nichols 4:30 pm @ BiHall 220

Understanding Social Determinants of Health:
Breaking the Link between Poverty and Poor Health

★ Thursday, October 28th

Hal Colston 12:30 pm @ BiHall 220

Community Action in New England: Social Entrepreneurism –
Connecting Passion and Creativity to Solve Tomorrow's Challenges

Ingrid Pixley and Doug Sinclair 4:30 @ Library 201

Housing Issues, Homelessness and Community Action in Vermont

★ Friday, October 29th

Taking Action 12:30 pm @ Hillcrest

Panel on Summer Anti-Poverty Internships

Featuring Dan Murphy ('11), Tiernan Meyer ('11), Jeanne Montross, Executive Director, HOPE (Helping Overcome Poverty's Effects) and internship host to Jessie Ebersole ('12)